

- ♦ Old and discarded computers are harmful for the environment. The waste that contains electronic devices like computers and mobile phones is called e-waste. This waste when not treated properly causes pollution.
- ♦ Computers are attacked by virus and this may cause loss of data. Due to virus attack, a computer may not be able to open various files.
- ♦ Many people misuse the computers to harm other people. Personal information such as names, addresses and passwords of users can be accessed using a computer.

Wrap Up

- ▶ Memory, speed, accuracy, no tiredness are some features of a computer that make it different from a human.
- ▶ Desktop computer, laptop, tablet and smartphone are different types of computers.
- ▶ People use computers for different types of work at different places like home, school, hospital, office, bank, shops and malls, airports and railway stations, hotels, police stations, film and entertainment, space research and defence and designing.

Exercise Session

BASED ON NEP 2020

A. Choose the correct answer.

- Where are computers used to prepare medical reports ?
 (a) Mall ☐ (b) Hospital ☐
 (c) Home ☐ (d) School ☐
- Why do banks use computers?
 (a) To keep customer details ☒ (b) To play games ☐
 (c) To book tickets ☐ (d) To teach ☐
- Which of the following type of computer is biggest in size?
 (a) Smartphone ☐ (b) Desktop ☐
 (c) Laptop ☐ (d) Tablet ☐

4. Which of the following can take decision on its own?

(a) Computer

(b) Human

(c) Animal

(d) Robot

5. We can send _____ using computers.

(a) jewellery

(b) e-mail

(c) food

(d) cloth

B. Fill in the blanks.

1. A computer works at a very high speed.

2. Computers are used to keep fee records in school.

3. Tablet are also known as tabs.

4. Computers are used at airports to keep details of flights.

5. A computer that is kept on the table is called a desktop computer.

C. Write 'T' for true and 'F' for false statements.

1. A computer has no feelings or emotions.

2. Computers make our work easy.

3. Computers are used to conduct research on space.

4. A smartphone is bigger than a laptop.

5. Computers are used in restaurants to cook food.

D. Answer the following questions.

1. Write any two differences between a human and a computer.

Ans. ① A human can think and take decision. A computer cannot take its own decision. ② A man has feelings and emotions. A computer has no feelings.

2. What are the things that can be designed using a computer?

Ans. Posters, Greeting cards, Pictures, storybooks, magazines, newspaper etc.

Count the number of different types of computers in Mr Sharma's office.

Picture Based

1 Desktop

3 Laptop

1 Tablet

Skill Task

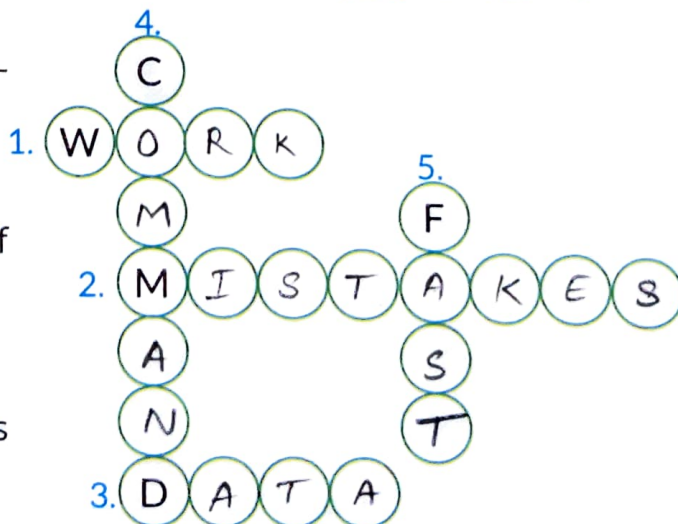

A. Solve the crossword given below.

Across →

- Computer can do same work again and again.
- Computer doesn't make mistakes
- Computer can store a large amount of data.

Down ↓

- Computer works on the user's command.
- Computer works very fast.

21st Century Skills

Critical Thinking

- B. List three places where you have seen computers being used. Also, write why computers are used at these places.

Observation

Place	Purpose
1. Home	(i) To draw and play games (ii) To listen to music and watch videos.
2. School	(i) To teach and learn. (ii) To do projects
3. Mall	(i) To prepare and print bills. (ii) To keep record of items.

- C. Hold a class discussion on how the scientist uses the computers (for which type of work).

Communication

- D. Computers contain heavy metals, such as lead and toxic chemicals. How do these affect the environment? Write a paragraph on it in your notebook.

Subject Link (EVS)

In Action

With the help of your teacher, open calculator on your computer and solve the following sums :

Experiential Learning

(a) $50 + 40 = 90$

(b) $32 - 16 = 16$

(c) $100 - 20 + 40 = 120$

(d) $20 \times 5 = 100$

(e) $140 - 70 = 70$

(f) $80/16 = 5$